

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Students are advised that all components of assessment are governed by the University's statutes and regulations.

We remind you of some of the restrictions that apply.

For work handed in for assessment (assignments), the work must be the student's OWN work, and not work done by others, or with assistance from others. You MUST NOT seek or accept inappropriate assistance from others, and you should not offer inappropriate assistance.

For examinations, tests or quizzes, whether held as formal examinations invigilated by student administration, or held under the supervision of regular or sessional staff of the Department, during the assessment task you MUST NOT;

- copy the work of another student
- communicate with another student
- use any unauthorised material (including notes of any kind, unless these are explicitly permitted)
- remove test materials which labelled as not to be removed, or which you are told you must not remove

Failing to observe these restrictions may lead to charges of academic misconduct, which have serious consequences.

Further information regarding academic misconduct is available at:
<http://academichonesty.unimelb.edu.au/plagiarism.html>